THE COMPANY

Where technology meets everyday life.

The NEUMI story: wellness, beauty and personal connection.

NEUMI brings its HydraStat delivery technology to a collection of oral liquids and topical products. Based in Sandy, Utah, the company connects product development with a community built around sharing the brand.

WELLNESS

Liquid-format products make up a central part of the collection, including NutriSwish and Neuro.

BEAUTY

Neumi Skin and Neumi Hair extend the company's approach into spray-on personal care.

COMMUNITY

Members share product information and introduce others to the company through personal conversations.
